Scam Email Attempts

Several of our OSL staff and congregation received emails recently from a scammer impersonating Pastor Michael. The email comes through with a subject line that reads From: Pastor Michael Stadtmueller, but the email address is not valid. Below is the message that was received, to show you what these messages may look like. More attempts will likely happen, as scammers continue to look for ways to target communities.

You will notice that the scammer mentions, “I value your quiet assistance” or “At present, my availability for phone calls is limited.” This is intended to have you act in secrecy and respond to these emails without asking questions or reaching out to Pastor Michael or OSL directly. If you receive an email that you are unsure about, please do not respond to the email, call us to verify.

Subject: Caring for One Another Church Welfare Update

I hope this message finds you well. Thank you for your continued service on the Church Board and for your faithful commitment to our ministry. Your leadership helps guide our staff and volunteers in serving God and our community.

We are planning a brief effort to recognize our staff and volunteers, and I would value your quiet assistance when convenient. Your guidance will inspire and encourage our volunteers.

At present, my availability for phone calls is limited. When you have a moment, please reply to let me know if you are able to assist.

“Let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up” (Galatians 6:9).
